

Faragalla & Associates

Fall 2014

Personal, friendly service tailored to your needs.

Serving the north central Maryland region for over 20 years.

Faragalla & Associates and Smith, George Accounting join forces with offices in Frederick and Middletown

Both Karen Smith Racicot and I are excited to be combining our firms to better serve the local area. Karen and the team in Middletown will continue to work from the Main Street office. The new depth of our team will allow Faragalla & Associates to bring additional services and value to individuals and small businesses. As in the past, all of us are committed to providing friendly, personalized service.

For our individual clients we now have a stronger personal tax service to help you maximize income and minimize taxes. Steve Biggs brings over 35 years of experience in tax preparation and planning.

Local businesses will benefit from a wider range of accounting services and business consulting to help you find financial strategies to improve business performance.
